People Power:

Construction will be an old-fashioned “barn raising” event where members of the community come together to build the playground in six days; September 16-21, 2008. Volunteer to help build for as little as 4 hours or up to five full days.

Tools:

Can you lend us your tools? Sanders, wrenches and saws; many will be needed. Replacement is guaranteed in case of breakages.

Donated Materials:

Sand and lumber are but a few of the materials needed to construct the playground. Your donations are needed and appreciated.

Food:

All food and drinks will be donated, and a lot will be required to keep the workers going. We also need volunteers to prepare and serve meals.
